Photography at Border Liners Orienteering Club events

Border Liners Orienteering Club welcomes the taking of photos and videos at their events. These may be shared publicly on our Website, Facebook page or Twitter account.

If you have concerns about this, or the taking of photographs you consider to be intrusive or inappropriate, please inform the event organiser or other official.

Close-ups of children will only be shared with permission from a parent.

You may request the removal of a photo that has already been publicly shared by the club.
